

Swiss North-South Collaboration in research and education: A sustainable model for the future

SUDAC Annual Conference 2022

Friday 3 June 2022

Eventforum Bern (Fabrikstrasse 12, 3012 Bern)

The SUDAC program has officially entered its second phase in 2021. For 2021-2024, the network will focus on the development of regional Clusters of Cooperation (CLOCs) in the Global South. The annual conference offers the opportunity to present the current state of these projects and discuss their strategies for the next years. At the same time, SUDAC will engage in a dialogue with other national stakeholders on the future of Swiss North-South collaboration in Research and Education. The conference is organised by swissuniversities with support from the KFPE (Commission for Research Partnerships with developing countries).

Master of ceremony: Clemens Tuor, Deputy Head International Relations, swissuniversities
